Consecrated for Service in Ministries
at the Intersection of Church and World

About Diaconal Ministry & Sara Parnell

Diaconal Ministers are consecrated for service in ministries at the intersection of church and world.

Diaconal Ministers work to seek wholeness in the world and to help the people of God to live out the gospel. They are committed to alerting the church to the needs of the world.

Diaconal Ministry is a ministry of Word and Service, sharing the hope of Christ, helping where there is need, and equipping others for healing and justice in the world.

Resurrection is excited to announce that member and Administrative Assistant, Sara Parnell, has completed the education and field experience requirements for Diaconal Ministry. She has been approved by the Minneapolis Area Synod of the ELCA to be called by a congregation to serve as a Diaconal Minister.

Sara's areas of interest and specialty include providing pastoral care to the congregation and community, sharing the love of Jesus with those on the fringes of society, and equipping God's people to care for one another.

Sara at a Glance:

Wife to Ryan since 2000

Mother to Ariel (12), Haley (9), Samson (3), and Lily (1)

BS in Christian Ministries from Northwestern College (2005)

and Master of Arts in Specialized Ministries

(Congregational and Community Care) from Luther Seminary (2009)

Leadership & Ministry Experiences:
